Frankly speaking, I go to the theatres really rare and if my girlfriend hadn't gone, I would have never seen this play. It was called "Romeo and Juliet".

This play is based on the book "Romeo and Juliet" by William Shakespeare. It's about two families which are in clash. The main heroes are Romeo and Juliet. They love each other but their parents will never let them get married, so that our heroes decide to do it without parents' permission. But in the end of the story they both kill themselves. After that, their families stop this ancient row and bury their children. Main characters were absolutely convincing and the actors were also doing really well. Many people were even crying! Costumes and decorations were really beautiful and realistic. Sometimes you felt you are sitting in a real city!

I think it was really great play. Everything was absolutely perfect. Good actors, realistic decorations...

I really recommend this play to everyone who wants to see a good acting. I also think It's really worth visiting performance.
